Scarborough & Tweed

Scarborough & Tweed's Signature Bags Give Back

Every bag purchased from Scarborough & Tweed's custom bag catalog will provide one meal for a child in need through World Food Program USA.

Scarborough & Tweed's renowned signature bags can be fully customized in a variety of colors and fabrics, and personalized with your logo. The bags are made in Scarborough & Tweed's own manufacturing facility in New York, which allows the company to accommodate minimum orders as low as 24 pieces.

The bags became so popular in the corporate world, Scarborough & Tweed recently introduced them to the college market. The company has designed bags for such schools as Yale, Wharton, Columbia, Pace, New York University, Boston College, and more.

Scarborough & Tweed's commitment to World Food Program USA is part of a give back campaign the company launched in September 2015. Products purchased from Scarborough & Tweed's online company stores will also support charitable causes.
