Altix to exhibit at APEX/ IPC Expo 2019

United States: Sylvain Dromaint, Vice President of Altix North America announced recently that his company will be exhibiting at APEX/IPC Expo 2019 to be held the week of January 28th, 2019 at the San Diego Convention Center, San Diego, California.

“We are looking forward showing our line of Direct Imaging equipment from the ADIX to ADIX PT/F to ADIX CS/F and ADIX RtR considers the most advanced equipment in the world at this time with over 650 machines operating all over the world. We are bringing our entire team to this exhibition to handle the meetings we have already set up. This promises to be a good show for ALTIX in terms of business as well as a little fun as we will be offering some gifts such as fine French wines and even an all-expenses paid trip to France. We look forward to meeting and doing business with all of our customers both current and future.” Said Mr. Dromaint when making the announcement.

Altix will be at booth #407

About ALTIX

Altix has been operating at the leading edge of technology since 1991. Innovation after innovation, Altix has delivered hundreds of Contact Exposure units (with mask/artwork or glass mask) and recently, Direct Imaging units - with more than 500 650 machines currently producing every day, all over the world.

All Altix equipment can meet the most demanding High Resolution (HDI) state of the art electronic board design, along with perfect registration alignment - thanks to highly accurate CCD alignment and even partitioning exposure.

Extreme adaptability, combined with technical leadership and field-proven solutions are our focus at Altix, all supported by a Customer Service team that strives to be efficient, helpful and friendly during each client interaction. Altix is always working hard to maximize our customer's uptime and performance by using strong local support all over the world, which is enhanced by our tele-maintenance and remote technical assistance.

For your future contact printer or digital equipment needs, please allow Altix to be your outstanding business partner. Imaging with us!
