

At Time Rack®, we believe in simplifying the time tracking process for companies and alert you to problems in advance with the purpose of saving you time and money. Our time & attendance solution has been developed with features that streamline time & attendance collection including management and processing.

The cloud-based software is extremely flexible and is geared towards the unique requirements of different industries all in an effort to satisfy your time clock solutions needs.

Proactive Real-time Alerts

Alerts of discrepancies and problems before they cost you money

Scheduling Module

Comprehensive scheduling and reports including actual vs. scheduling reports

High Security

Unique features that are proven to reduce fraud and theft

Low Risk

Centrally hosted application providing biometric solutions and safe data storage

Advanced Time Off Management

Online time off approval portal and auto populating timecards

Intelligent Reporting

Access to real-time data reports with built-in filters and export features