Misha Zadeh Will Be Exhibiting In Booth 527 at SURTEX May 15 to 17, 2016 In NYC

SEATTLE, WA. April 11, 2016:

Graphic Designer and Illustrator Misha Zadeh (pronounced MEE-sha zah-DAY) will be showing a new portfolio of surface pattern work at next month's SURTEX show in New York City. ( Jacob K. Javits Convention Center, NYC | May 15 - 17, 2016).

Misha has had prior art licensing success with designs from her stationery business, Turquoise Creative, which specialized in handmade, cut-paper and letterpress cards that were carried in high-end boutiques around the country.

Now she's excited to announced that after nearly 20 years of graphic design experience—and a decade in stationery—she has decided to license artwork to the fabric, home decor and children's markets. She has spent the past year creating a new body of work specifically for this purpose. She will be debuting this vibrant, playful and contemporary collection at this year's SURTEX show in New York. According to Misha, "SURTEX is where the surface design world comes together, and seems the perfect place to introduce myself to manufacturers and colleagues, and to share this exciting new collection."
