United Sporting Companies Chooses American Built Arms Company to Help Expand Their “Made in the USA” Product Line

Glen Rock, PA, December 10, 2016 – American Built Arms Company (www.abarms.com), a veteran-owned, Type 07/NFA FFL manufacturer of firearms parts and accessories to the law enforcement, military and civilian markets, announced it has added United Sporting Companies (www.ellettbrothers.com) out of Chapin, SC to its growing list of valued distributors who sell their A*B Arms brand of parts and accessories.

"We are thrilled to welcome United Sporting Companies to our growing distributor program," said Jason Combs, President and Founder of American Built Arms Company. "As a manufacturer of high-end products for the firearms industry, we look for distributors who can offer outstanding customer service, a knowledgeable sales force and large product offerings to firearms dealers on a national scale. We look forward to working with United Sporting Companies, through their Ellett Brothers and Jerry's Divisions to help market and sell the A*B Arms brand products to their growing dealer network."

American Built Arms Company will continue to launch and distribute new, “Made in the U.S.A.” products with United Sporting Companies as they are made available to firearm enthusiasts throughout the country.
