

KMS was founded in 2007. Founders both have the professional tactical background. The start-up team led by designers is one of the earliest tactical products design teams in China that focused on R&D and took the lead in introducing the world's cutting-edge tactical product design and technology to China.

KMS have our own production bases and comprehensive supply chains. We always use 4 keywords to explain our advantages:

1st: Contracts

KMS is professional for government tenders and projects, familiar with government's standard, will be the strong support for helping you pass the tests and get orders

2nd: Customization Service

KMS design team: Dr.IMG has unique R&D skills. Multi - production lines and strong supply chains can satisfy any OEM and ODM needs.

3rd: RTS service

KMS own a series of independent brand, such as MG FlashForce whose products are top sellers in online & offline. Offering USA overseas warehouse and drop shipping.

4th: Brand Support

KMS are willing to support different kinds of partners, even the fresh brand. flexible MOQ, various supplies and creative suggestions are our advantages. let's grow up together

After nearly 20 years of precipitation, KMS has grown into the top large-scale service provider integrating design, manufacturing and supply as a whole of professional tactical equipment.
