PREPARE TODAY, SURVIVE TOMORROW

MIRA Safety exists for one reason... and one reason only: To provide industry professionals and the general public with uncompromising equipment for personal protection, utility, and comfort.

We provide the same kind of cutting-edge equipment and self-defense gear trusted by top-tier military operators—with key engineering enhancements to make them more practical and effective on the homefront. Everything in our inventory is strictly professional-grade, giving you the confidence you need to overcome obstacles in your path.

Headquartered in Austin, Texas, MIRA Safety has international partnerships with agencies and law enforcement groups worldwide. Every new product we develop strives to maintain the same levels of value and uncompromising workmanship that have earned us their trust.

MIRA Safety dedicates to providing viable PPE equipment for everyone—including children, the elderly, and others who don't have many choices when it comes to gas masks and respirators.

Ultimately, our business is all about safety and protection, which means it's all about people. So we're dedicated to excellence in customer service and satisfaction.

CORE VALUES

PREPAREDNESS FOR ALL

From our commitment to value to developing the only dedicated children's CBRN gas mask, MIRA Safety is here to put preparedness and peace of mind within everyone's reach.

UNCOMPROMISING QUALITY

When it comes to protective CBRN gear, there can be no doubt. Each product we sell is carefully engineered, tested, and then re-tested to ensure functionality and durability in any environment.

MAXIMUM VERSATILITY

Our high-quality respirators and personal protection products are designed to account for any specific user requirements. Regardless of your age, shape, or size, we have the perfect products in various styles and configurations to ensure your protection.

CUSTOMERS FIRST

Our business is all about protecting people. So every customer, regardless of size, sophistication, or experience, gets the same attention and careful consideration from our elite Customer Service Team.

UNSTOPPABLE INNOVATION

Working with the world's leading providers of CBRN gear and top military and police operators from around the globe, MIRA Safety is constantly evolving and developing new products on the cutting edge of technology and design.

DEDICATION TO INTEGRITY

MIRA Safety will never sell gear we wouldn't use to protect ourselves and our families. We always work to provide the most detailed insights and advice so you can make the right decision for those you're trusted to protect.
