[OXO TACTICAL]

Unveils Rennovative Detail Tactical Gear at SHOT Show 2024

[LAS VEGAS, Jan 19 2024] — In a landmark debut at the 2024 SHOT Show®, OXO Tactical proudly presents its cutting-edge tactical gear, redefining industry standards and marking the brand's inaugural participation in this prestigious event. The event, taking place at The Venetian Expo and Caesars Forum in Las Vegas from January 23-26, 2024, marks OXO Tactical's inaugural participation.

FROGSKIN TQ+

Step into the future with the FROGSKIN TQ+, a tactical combat suit engineered for the modern warrior. This flame-resistant marvel boasts a built-in emergency tourniquet, ensuring immediate response to critical situations. Crafted from high airflow and quick-dry fabric, it combines functionality with comfort, setting a new benchmark in tactical wear.

HARDROCK

Meet the HARDROCK, a testament to innovation in ballistic protection. These lightweight and thin plates stand resilient against multiple shots, providing unparalleled defence. Floatable for plates made with PE and delivering superior protective strength for ceramic plates, the HARDROCK series is a game-changer in personal safety.

TROOPER Helmet Series:

TROOPER MAX

Elevate your protection with the TROOPER MAX, a high-cut ballistic helmet designed for those who demand the utmost in safety. Boasting the highest protection level in the TROOPER series, it combines cutting-edge technology with superior design.

TROOPER X

Navigate riot scenarios with confidence using the TROOPER X, an anti-riot helmet offering exceptional stability and fit. Featuring a new star-shaped fastening button for improved touch and adjustment, along with extended visor length options adaptable to gas masks, as professional level use.

TROOPER CARBON

Experience the future of bump protection with the TROOPER CARBON, a featherweight helmet crafted from carbon fiber. Balancing strength with agility, it redefines expectations for bump-proof headgear.

OXO Tactical is thrilled to introduce their groundbreaking gear at SHOT Show 2024. All exhibited products are a testament to innovation and excellence.
