Owens Products will exhibit at the 2026 SHOT Show[®] in Las Vegas with 2,500 other booths

STURGIS, MI [November 26, 2025] – Owens Products is headed to Las Vegas for the 2026 SHOT Show[®], taking place January 20–23 at The Venetian Expo and Caesars Forum.

As the industry's premier event for shooting sports, hunting, law enforcement and tactical gear, SHOT Show brings together more than 2,500 exhibitors and tens of thousands of professional buyers from around the globe.

This year, Owens Products will be showcasing their Professional K9 Containment Series, featuring the K9 Tactical Crate, K9 Collapsible Crate, K9 Vehicle Insert, and K9 Kennel Solution, at booth #31302.

"SHOT Show is always one of our favorite events," said Bob Mansmith, Sales Manager at Owens Products. "It's where the entire industry shows up. We get to connect with longtime partners, meet new prospects, and talk about what sets us apart from others in the k9 containment sector. If you're in the tactical community, this is the place to be."

In addition to hands-on product demonstrations, booth visitors will have access to exclusive show specials. The Owens Products team will be available throughout the week to discuss solutions tailored to dealers, retailers and agencies looking for reliable, high-performance products.
