RZR LOW PROFILE BATTLE BELT RIG

Tac Shield's RZR Low Profile Cobra® Battle Belt rig offers a perfect combination of a strong outer platform gear belt with a solid inner belt that fits a wide range of pant choices...from Blue Jeans to Tactical or Duty pants.

RZR MOLLE system provides lazer cut MAP slots to weave your gear and magazine pouches onto the outer belt ensuring secure and tight attachment. The Military Grade 1000D/500D laminate is Hydrophobic and Antimicrobial.

RZR® BATTLE BELT

Our Low Profile 2.25" outer Cobra® Battle-Duty belt offers an extremely solid platform constructed of Military Grade Cordura® 1000D/500D Laminate, Mil-Spec Scuba Webbing and Low-profile Velcro® hook. The Cobra® Double-lever buckle is the Professional Standard with a 2,000 lb strength rating and proven dependability. The 1.5" inner belt provides a solid platform while offering the flexibility to fit a wide range of pants. The overlap Velcro® lock easily adjusts to your waist sizes. The outer layer of Velcro® loop ensures a non-scratch surface for pants loops or other materials that brush up against it.

- Triple MAP Slots for Secure Gear Mounting
- 2.25" Width with RZR Cordura® Laminate
- Cobra® Double Lever 2000lb Buckle
- Velcro® Low Profile Hook Secures to 1.5" Inner loop Belt

BIRD DOG SHOTGUN SLING

The Tac Shield Bird Dog Shotgun Sling accommodates a sturdy and comfortable carrying platform for every hunter's most cherished shotguns. The barrel and pistol grip slip-over loop system eliminates the need for installing stud swivels preserving the quality of wood stock finishes. The suede-lined barrel loop protects bluing and other gun metal finishes.

Laser cut Mil-Spec laminate is blended with padded non-slip Tac Grip material offering durable weather protection and comfort when carrying in the field or on the sporting clay range. The fast adjust slider pull supports quick transition from shoulder to shooting positions.

The Tac Shield Bird Dog Shotgun Sling is sure to compliment the best of your shotgun collection!
